

Participants needed for a Perception Study

We are looking for participants with mild cognitive impairment (MCI) to participate in Clinical research.

Help us plan better cities and living environments by participating in a cutting-edge research that helps us understand how people perceive different built environments.

Eligibility:

Participants with mild cognitive impairment, any age

Time Taken:

1. 30 mins for EEG experiment
2. Around 2 hours of neuropsychological testing (usually across two visits)

Compensation: $100 stipend for your participation

Location: MSU Clinical Center

More information : Dr. Tyson Burghardt

burghar8@msu.edu